This Govt has already adopted the present Standard Time. Their reply is invited to the O.M. issued in this connection. Since the present time is to continue for the period of the war, No action seems called for now. It is for consideration and orders whether the office hours need be changed. as suggested by the Govt of India during summer months.

working hours of offices & courts, especially during the summer season. Much inconvenience is felt by the offrs. to attend offices & courts at 11-30 A.m. during summer months, as it corresponds to 10-30 A.m of the old time. They will have to rise from & 9-30 A.m (10-30 new time) & get ready to go to their offices. It will also be hard for them to leave office at 5-30 P.m, which is 4-30 P.m according to old time. The day being long during the summer season, it will be both convenient & advantageous, if the working hours during this season, say from March to September are changed to 12 & 6 P.m. (11 & 5 P.m as per old time. For the period from October to February, so long as the present Standard time is continued, we may stick to the existing hours viz 11-30 A.m to 5-30 P.m.

1.5.43. Has the Home Dept & concerned authorities been consulted regarding proposal to change hours of work of courts without consulting them?

On a previous occasion, the War Cabinet objected to the alteration of the working hours so far as Courts were concerned as such alteration could be effected only by amendment of the Rules of Practice. Hence, if adopted, the order will be confined to offices; leaving the Lord Chancellor to make necessary alteration as regards Courts
